REPORT OF THE LIBRARY TRUSTEES

During the past year 60 books of fiction and a set of books of the World War have been purchased for the Library with money availalbe for that purpose. In addition the following persons donated books:

Mary Gage Marston	14
Edwin C Abbott	12
Florence C Glidden	10
Dr. Ervin W Hodsdon	6
Effie Lord	1
Leslie Moody	1

These voluntary contributions all help to increase the efficiency of our Library and we are pleased to thank those who have thus aided us. Altogether the Library numbers about 1500 volumes.

Miss Grace E. Kingsland, Secretary of the N. H. Public Library Commission, spent two days here during the summer of 1921 at the Community House for the purpose of introducing a system of cataloguing the books, and this system is now being used. Miss Kingsland made a number of suggestions to the Trustees regarding ways in which the Ossipee Public Library can give better service to the town as a whole.

We wish at this opportunity to express to Mr. Ernest D. Merrow our appreciation for the service which he rendered by means of the concert held at Center Ossipee Sept. 22, 1921, the entire receipts of which, $33 25, were given for the use of the Library. The concert, the program of which follows, was of a very high standard and thoroughly enjoyed by those who attended.

It has frequently been a matter of regret to the Trustees and others interested that our Library was not of greater service to the community, that more people did not avail themselves of the opportunity to use it. We are pleased to say, however, that in this respect there is beginning to be much improvement. During the past few weeks the average number of families making use of the library has been approximately thirty.

SCHOOL REPORT

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE TOWN OF OSSIPEE:

The School Board of your District submit herewith a report of the Superintendent of Schools which covers the situation of your schools to a very detailed extent, and all that is contained therein is endorsed by the School Board.

It is felt that there are three things that should be called to your attention as accomplished this year in school work in Ossipee, viz:

An increased efficiency on the practical side of each scholars' training of from 15 to 20 per cent has been brought about by the course of study introduced.

That the work of the Superintendent of Schools warrants such an appropriation as will continue him in this District.

That although the State Board of Education proposes to cut the allowance the District should receive from the State it is hoped to close the year ending June 30, 1922 without any deficit and without requesting a deficiency appropriation for the year.

The co-operation and interest of all are solicited in the work of making better schools and better work in those schools.

Respectfully submitted,

ARTHUR E. KENISON,
JOHN Q. ANGELL,
BELLE W. SINCLAIR.

SCHOOL BOARD OF OSSIPEE.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS.

TO THE SCHOOL BOARD OF OSS�PEE:

Your Superintendent has the honor to submit the following report for your consideration.

During the past year Ossipee was one of the few towns to keep its teaching force intact. And we were able to enter the present year with the loss of but one of our teachers, with every prospect of keeping the group intact for this year. Again, where many towns were finding it necessary to supply the vacancies with young and inexperienced teachers, all of our schools have been served by teachers of experience and training. These teachers have been connected with your schools for an average of 6 or 7 years each, many of them in the same position for a period of years. This is a condition upon which you should be congratulated. This continuity of service of a good teacher is of inestimable value to the community.

I believe that one of the results of the above condition is the remarkable attendance which our schools showed last year.

The average per cent of attendance for all schools was 96 1-2 and the names of 105 different pupils, over one-half of the gross and two-thirds of the net enrolment, appear on the Roll of Honor having been neither absent or tardy for periods varying from one term to the entire year. With regard to good attendance, few towns in the state can match the record made by the Ossipee children, and I wish to express to the teachers my appreciation for their keen sense of responsibility in this matter, and to thank the parents for their splendid co-operation.

By means of generous appropriations which was made for the repairs of schoolhouses at the last annual meeting a great improvement was made in the interior of our schoolhouses during the summer vacation. Some alterations were made at Center Ossipee and Water Village, and the interiors of four schools, including the two just mentioned, with Mountainview and Granite, were painted. Nobody who enters the rooms that were freshly painted this summer, especially those at Center Ossipee and Water Village can fail to be impressed with the quiet, cheerful, clean appearance which they make, and that influence it certainly reflected in the pupils. I wish that more of the townspeople would visit our schools to see the rooms for themselves and to see the work of the children. One of the officials connected with the State Board of Education took occasion this fall to compliment the Ossipee School officials upon the condition of our school buildings. I do not see the need of a large appropriation for school repairs for the coming year, but I would suggest several hundred dollars be raised for the general upkeep of the buildings and to provide for painting the outside of several of them.

It seems to me fitting that we should at this time give expression to our appreciation of the efforts of the County Red Cross in making it possible for so many of the children of our schools to receive treatment at the two clinics which were held in June and September of last year at the Community House Mountainview. The inspection of children which is each year made by the school physician does little more than determine physical defects, and where no provision is made for follow-up work remedial treatment is seldom received.

The work of the clinics then assumes a place of great importance. At the two clinics, thirty-three of our pupils were operated upon for tonsils and adenoids, thirty-eight had dental work done, and eight were examined by an eye specialist.

At the beginning of the present school year, at the suggestion of the School Board, your Superintendent prepared a course of study for the Ossipee Schools. While this course does not depart radically from that suggested by the State Program of Studies, it devotes particular attention to the fundamentals. It especially emphasizes the practical side of the work in arithmetic, and includes the work of the eighth year special drills in business forms, and a course in elementary bookkeeping. Hand writing and spelling have been given a very definite place upon the program and standards of accomplishment have been set up so that a pupil who graduates from the elementary schools must write neatly and with fair legibility, and spell all common words correctly. In short, the general purpose of the course is to attempt to make the school work produce practical results for the child and fit him for the work of life, so that when he passes out from our elementary schools, if unable to continue his school work beyond the eighth grade, he may enter into the business and social life of the community with a practical knowledge of what to do and how to do it, which our graduates heretofore have not always had.

If I were to make a rather arbitrary grouping of the more common subjects of the elementary schools I should place them under general headlines: (a) the fundamentals, (b) the essentials, and (c) the desirables. Under the fundamentals I should place reading, writing, arithmetic, spelling, language and grammar; the essentials would compose hygiene, civics, history, geography and current events; under the third grouping I would include music, drawing, nature, manual training and manual arts. It is next to impossible for the ordinary rural school to teach all of these subjects and teach them well. It is clearly obvious to everyone that to leave out or in any way neglect the first group: they are the tools of common use, and should be learned thoroughly to the extent that they function in everyday. It is equally clear to me that we cannot leave out the second group. It is difficult to overestimate the importance of hygiene and civics. To teach the child how to live, to create in him a sense of his opportunity and responsibility as a future citizen, these are things of primary importance. And as our country has in a very broad sense become a world power to enter into an intelligent citizenship, the boy and girl must know history and geography and become interested in current events. As yet our schools have done very little with the subjects of the last group, and I do not see any immediate prospect of increasing the amount of time spent upon them. At the same time I realize as keenly as anybody does that these subjects are all desirable ones, and if in the future by a re-alignment of grades or a redistribution of time, the opportunity comes to increase our range of subjects I will be very glad to recommend as an addition to our program subjects of this group.

By an act of the legislature, the fiscal and scholastic year for all school districts ends June 30 in each year instead of August 31st, heretofore. The money appropriated at the annual school meeting is not expended until the next school year beginning now on July 1st following. Therefore the only complete financial statement that can be given in this report is the one for the school year ending June 30th 1921. A short supplementary report of expenditures from July 1st, 1921 to Jan 31st, 1922 has been added. The school expenses this year are practically the same as last. Teachers' salaries remain the same, the cost of fuel is less, there is an increase of several hundred dollars in High School tuitions and a slight increase in the Superintendent's excess salary on account of the law making it necessary for the towns to bear a somewhat larger portion of the total.

The usual group of statistical tables follow this report. You will notice a large increase in High School attendance, nineteengraduates of our schools last year, sixteen are attending high schools and academies, a fact that is impressive and gratifying.

Respectfully submitted,
 HAROLD C WINGATE,
 SUPERINTENDENT.
